Accepted Lenses

We are accepting lenses, with or without the camera!

There are so many lenses out there that it would be endless pages to list them, so we recommend entering your lens into Google to see it's current resale price. If it's above $400, we will generally consider it for donation.

We are looking for lenses that are most appropriate for careers in portrait photography, real estate photography, etc. We are in need of prime lenses such as an 85mm.

Questions? Send us an email on our contact page!
